OGDEN, UTAH, - - JULY 12, 1902.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT:

The Hollanders Will Have an Outing at Lagoon July 18th.

Felony and Assault Cases-Prof. Coop Goes to Germany-County School Election.

A woman named Lillie Dixon was arrested about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Detective Pender on the charge of stealing a purse containing $103 from a Mrs. Olive Marshall. The Dixon woman, better known to the police as "French Lilly," lives at a rooming house in the Tanner block. Mrs. Marshall came to Ogden a few days ago from Pocatello, intending to stop here but a short time, and was directed to the same boarding house where the Dixon woman lives. They met each other and yesterday about 1 o'clock the French woman called on Mrs. Marshall in her room. While there she saw Mrs. Marshall's purse lying on a small table, she picked it up, placed it in her shopping bag and started away to visit a lady friend named Lee.

Mrs. Marshall missed the pocket book and immediately suspected French Lilly of stealing it. She tried to find the French woman but falled, and re-ported the matter to the police. Detec-tive Pender was detailed to effect the arrest and in about 30 minutes had the woman in the jail. At the police station the purse was found in her possession, but $40 of the money was miss ng. She admitted having taken the purse but said she picked it up in a mistake and had not opened it, but when told that $40 was missing she said "that's all right. I'll make money is no object to me," and told Detective Pender where he could get $20 which was recovered, but she maintained that she had not taken the cash. She was locked up in the wo-men's ward, and a charge of grand arceny booked against her.

Mrs. Rainey arrived a day or two ago and proceeded to use a horse whip on the aged gentleman and his wife. F. W. Karren came to the rescue and the indignant woman chased him forth with the same weapon, and remains in full possession of the home. It is probable that the affair will lead to further litigation. Mrs. Rainey was fined $5 by Justice Pond. F. W. Karren states that his father yielded possession on the advice of the instice, thinking it best to leave the justice, thinking it best to leave the matter to the courts to decide.
